2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Scoil Iosaef Naofa is a Catholic boys primary school with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Cloyne.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Scoil Iosaef Naofa shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

We, in Scoil Iosaef Naofa, are committed to a philosophy of education which is firmly rooted in the principles of Curaclam na Bunscoile and draws extensively on our heritage as a school founded by the Presentation Brothers.

Acknowledging and cherishing the uniqueness of each child in our care, we seek the holistic development of the potential of the individual. Our work at Scoil Iosaef Naofa aims at developing each child to his full potential academically, socially, physically, emotionally and spiritually. Each child is enabled to participate in further education and to play a full part in society.

The ethos of our school is Catholic. We promote the Gospel values of love, respect, truth and justice. We are inspired by the life of Blessed Edmund Rice and following his example we strive to create a strong sense of community in our school. Looking after the less fortunate in our community and in the wider world is an integral part of this. We value the importance of symbols and wish these to reflect the ethos of our school. The Religion programme and the sacramental preparation for First Holy Communion and Confirmation are important to the development of the child.

As we seek to teach justice in the school our concern is to teach justly. Our rules and code of discipline are based on respect and equality. We do not tolerate bullying in any of its forms. Sport plays an important part in the life of Scoil Iosaef Naofa. We acknowledge the contribution of all sports to the holistic development of the child. We encourage participation in all sports but in particular Gaelic games as they form part of our cultural heritage and are important components of a Gaelic ethos in our school.

We nurture and develop in the children a respect for and an appreciation of cultural and ethnic differences as citizens of a global community. We are committed to inclusivity and seek to focus on a person's abilities rather than disabilities whether they be physical or mental. We cultivate a respect for and love of the environment as part of God's creation.
